LITTLE CONTEST IN PRIMARIES

FERGUSON OPPOSED BY SCOTT FOR REPUBLICAN TREASURER

In so far as holding a primary election in Crawford county it would hardly be worth while. Only one contest appears for that election. County Treasurer Wm. Ferguson is being opposed for nomination by Oliver B. Scott of South Branch township.

The present incumbents in office, all of whom are Republicans, are unopposed with exception of Mr. Ferguson. Clayton D. Straehly has filed and his name will appear for the same office—county treasurer—on the Democratic ticket. He is unopposed on that ticket, as is also Peter F. Jorgenson, who is out for sheriff on the Democratic ticket.

Following are the names that will appear on the primary election ballots September 4th.

Republican Ticket
Judge of Probate—George Sorenson.
Sheriff—J. E. Bohnmeyer.
Clerk—Charles Gierke.
Treasurer—William Ferguson.
Register of Deeds—Andrew Hart.
Prosecuting Attorney—Merle F. Nellist.
Circuit Court Commissioner—Merle F. Nellist.

Democrat Ticket
Sheriff—Peter F. Jorgenson.
Treasurer—Clayton D. Straehly.

The candidates are all men who are well known and hardly need an introduction, at least to the older voters of the county. Mr. Ferguson has been elected to the unexpired term of Edwin S. Chalker who resigned. He was elected the following year and now is out for election to a second term. He has made a fine record for efficiency in that office. Mr. Scott, also a candidate for treasurer on the Republican ticket, has served as supervisor of South Branch township for several years, and thru his experience in that office has become very familiar with county affairs. Clayton D. Straehly, Democratic candidate for treasurer, has resided in Grayling most of his life time and is very well known to about everyone. He is the present Worshipful Master of Grayling Lodge F. & A. M. where he is making a splendid record. We know of no public office he has ever held.

Jess Bohnmeyer is probably one of the best sheriffs this county has ever had. Of course he may not suit everyone, and nor will anyone else either. He is candidate for reelection on the Republican ticket and is unopposed. Peter F. Jorgenson is unopposed for nomination for that office on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Jorgenson has served the county as sheriff before and is well known to just about everyone. He is a good citizen and says he hopes to be elected in November.

Pretty Soft for Some
It is pretty soft for the other candidates on the tickets for they are unopposed either in the primary or the general election.

George Sorenson is serving his second term in the office of probate judge and is giving excellent satisfaction. Charles Gierke has made a splendid record in the office of clerk, especially considering this was his first term, and that he entered the office without any special training or instruction.

Prosecuting Attorney Merle F. Nellist seems to have no trouble in learning out competitors. He was appointed to that office by Judge Guy Smith to fill the vacancy occurring by the resignation of Homer G. Pich in the year 1923. Since that time he has been regularly reelected without opposition. He also has been filling the office of circuit court commissioner and is a candidate for that office again.

Andrew Hart has made an enviable record in the office of Register of Deeds. His records are all entered with typewriter and highly legible and very accurate. He is always courteous and ready to be of any service required. While his deformed, crippled condition makes it impossible for him to walk on his feet, still he has no trouble in doing his work. The register job is ideal for him and he deserves this patronage from the people.

State Ticket
United States Senator (Full Term)
Arthur H. Vandenberg—Republican.
Frank Murphy—Democratic.
John W. Bailey—Democratic.
Duly McCone—Prohibition.
William L. Kriehoff—Socialist.
Ben A. Faulkner—Workers Party.
United States Senator (To Fill Vacancy)
Arthur H. Vandenberg—Republican.
Frank Murphy—Democratic.
John W. Bailey—Democratic.
Francis W. Elliott—Socialist.

Governor
Fred W. Green—Republican.
Robert R. Pointer—Republican.
George W. Welsh—Republican.
William A. Comstock—Democratic.
Ervin D. Brooks—Prohibition.
Guy L. Lockwood—Socialist.
William Reynolds—Workers Party.

Lieutenant Governor
Loren D. Dickenson—Republican.
Fred L. Woodworth—Republican.
George Elmer McArthur—Republican.

Congressman 10th District
Roy G. Woodruff—Republican.
Judson E. Richardson—Democratic.
State Senator 28th District
Horatio S. Karcher—Republican.
Tony Archard—Republican.
Representative, Presque Isle District
James R. Snody—Republican.
Joseph Warnock—Republican.
William Green—Republican.
Henry J. Klee—Democratic.

FREE CAMPAIGN CARDS

While we have reason to believe that for some time a considerable amount of county printing and binding has gone to out in the state print, which could just as well be done "at home," we did not realize that the business had grown to such proportions that one Kalamazoo concern had to take a hand in county politics in order to assure themselves receiving orders for printing in the future. Yet that seems to be happening in this county for only last week our county clerk, who is a candidate for reelection, started passing out his campaign cards, a blotter printed in two colors. Asked why he should go out of town for his printing he said that he had been given a thousand or more of these blotters by Double-Hunt-Dolan Co., and could see no reason for not using them. It's a man's own privilege to get his printing done where he wishes and his own business if he can save a dollar, but it sure does look funny to see an out of the county printing establishment taking part in our county politics. Printing and furnishing campaign cards free to office seekers looks like a bribe and their use smacks of something similar.—Rosecommon Herald-News.

CHEST CLINIC
AUG. 13 AND 14
Hostesses who will assist in the Chest Clinic are Mrs. J. W. Toan, a chest specialist of many years' experience, will conduct the examinations. Tuberculosis is curable when found in the early stages. Attendance at the clinic is therefore urged upon all persons who are suffering from loss of strength or weight, indigestion, afternoon fever, or a persistent dry cough. The disease is communicable, so people who do not have any one of these symptoms, but who have been in contact with a tuberculous person should also attend the clinic. Unfortunately tuberculosis victims often disregard the symptoms until their cases have become far advanced. Tuberculosis sanatorium figures show that from 80 to 85% of their patients are far advanced cases when they apply for treatment. This laxity in securing prompt diagnosis and early treatment makes recovery doubtful and causes many unnecessary deaths. The deaths from tuberculosis in Michigan last year, 2,962, no longer rank it as the leading cause of death in the state, yet it still kills more people between the ages of 15 and 45 than any other disease.

CORRECTION IN FREDERIC SCHOOL REPORT
An error was made in publication of the "Balance of fund" report for year ending July 1st, 1928, in the proceedings of School District No. 1, of Frederic township. The report shows a balance in the primary fund of $3,786.44, whereas there is no money left over in that fund. The balance on hand in the several funds should read as follows:
Balance on hand—July 1, 1928—
Primary fund—$175.48; General fund, $754.83; Capital outlay, $38.48; Debt service, $2,322.10; total, $3,339.89.

CRAWFORD COUNTY WITHOUT NURSE

AUTHORITIES FAIL TO PROVIDE FUND FOR THIS NEEDED SERVICE

Miss Keeran leaves today for St. Clair, Mich., where she will be employed for the coming year as community nurse.

This leaves Crawford County without a Public Health nurse, a service we have had for the past ten years. The nurse's salary has been taken care of by the Supervisors, the School Board, and the Village Council, each sharing equally. The expenses of the car have been paid by the local Red Cross.

The Red Cross Committee have done their best to keep up this service going before the different boards each year and asking for appropriations but this year no appropriation has been made. Through the efforts of the Red Cross Nurse twenty tonsil cases have been taken care of this year. Dr. Keyport and Clippert have given their services free and a charge of $3 each was made by the hospital. This barely covers the cost of laundry work necessary for an operation of this kind.

Our school has been especially free from epidemics since we have employed a nurse. Already there are two cases of whooping cough, two of measles and one of mumps. Those who look after these epidemics in school this fall?

The local Red Cross Secretary will be pleased to have written communication from a number of the people in the community who are interested in health problems and the nursing service. Do you think this service is worth while?

NEW CRUISER FOR NAVY

According to a News Bulletin received from the Navy Recruiting Station, Detroit, a new cruiser now under construction is to be called the "Chicago." She will have a displacement of 10,000 tons and will carry eight inch guns in three turrets, besides anti-aircraft and other batteries. The old Chicago was the flagship of the famous White Squadron of the late nineties.

GIVES $500 TO MERCY HOSPITAL

In appreciation of what Mercy hospital means to this community, a certain organization has given $500 towards its operating expenses. The donors claim that it is worth that much to them to have a well regulated and well equipped hospital available whenever it is needed. Certainly that is the right spirit. It means health insurance to every person within reach of its service. We are not permitted to give the names of the donors.

Recently a man well known thruout Michigan, and his wife, were injured in an auto accident and were brought to Grayling. Now they cannot say too much for the hospital. Those who have been patients at Mercy hospital are its biggest boosters.

WALTER L. MAIN CIRCUS HAS TWO GREAT HERDS OF FINELY TRAINED ELEPHANTS

MISS BOBBY CORNET
One of the Walter L. Main Elephant Trainers

When the Walter L. Main Circus comes to Grayling on Thursday, August 2, there will be seen one of the greatest collections of elephants ever brought here with a circus. Two great herds are carried with this mammoth circus organization and these include many of the most splendidly trained elephants in the world.

Besides doing the ordinary circus routine work generally allotted to the elephants the Walter L. Main elephants have been trained to perform many distinctly novel and spectacular stunts. The two herds of elephants are managed by both men and women trainers of renown and those who can appreciate the antics of the huge and clumsy pachyderms have many high-entertaining treats in store for them when they visit the Walter L. Main circus.

The Walter L. Main circus this year far exceeds any previous year and among the various featured aggregations are the forty funny and famous clowns, headed by Harry La Pearl, Fred Leslie, Chick Reed, Billy Sells, Lou Hershey, Harry Loy, George Wayman, and Rubie Dyer; the 30 acrobats, headed by Sylvester Bro-

ST. MARY'S ANNUAL FAIR

The ladies of St. Mary's church will give their annual summer fair and supper on Thursday, August 9th at the High School gymnasium, beginning at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Each year the ladies have some special attraction and this year the feature is the Grayling Cook Book, which was recently gotten out by them. These cook books have been on sale for some time and are going fast, so if you haven't already bought one you may get one at the fair. $1 per copy.

The supper that will be served from 5:00 to 7:00 o'clock will be one of the old fashioned kind for 50 cents. In the afternoon there will be bridge at one place for which prizes of $5, $3, and $1 will be awarded for first, second and third highest scores. The fair proper will consist of hand made pieced quilts, pillow cases, aprons and house dresses, children's dresses, a candy booth, fish pond, pop and ice cream stand.

There will be no admission charge and everybody is cordially invited to attend. The big feature of the evening will be the park plan dance.

This annual affair is always one of the most popular of the summer festivities, taking place as it does each year during the Michigan National Guard camp.

Don't forget, August 9th is the afternoon and evening at the School gymnasium.

106TH CAVALRY ARRIVES IN CAMP

OTHER GROUPS TO ARRIVE NEXT WEEK

The first arrivals at Camp Grayling of Michigan National guardsmen was the 1st squadron of the 106th cavalry, consisting of 15 officers, 227 men and 176 horses. They came into camp early Monday morning and are stationed in the area that is used by the Field Artillery regiment. Just as soon as they had their camp in order the troops started in upon their program of training.

The 106th Cavalry is under command of Lt. Col. Harold P. Webber.

An advance detachment of the 182d Field Artillery of Detroit, is expected to reach camp next Monday. On August 1st detachments from the infantry and medical regiments, the air service and the headquarters division are expected to arrive.

On August 2nd the entire 182d Field Artillery regiment will arrive, and will take up their new quarters near the medical regiment.

On August 3rd an advance detachment of the 119th Field Artillery regiment will arrive in camp.

On August 4th the Headquarters 32nd Division, under command of Maj. Gen. Guy M. Wilson, will arrive in camp. Also the 63rd Inf. brigade under command of Col. John S. Scouten; the 107th Medical regiment, the special troops of the 32nd Division and the 32nd Division Air Service, under command of Maj. Floyd E. Evans.

General's Staff Officers

The officers on the staff of Maj. Gen. Wilson will be as follows: Col. Leroy Pearson, chief of staff; Lt. Col. John H. Steck, operations and training; Lt. Col. Harry E. Loomis, transportation and supplies; Lt. Col. James Sinke, personnel and welfare; Lt. Col. Charles F. Sammons, intelligence; and Lt. Col. Daniel L. Remington, Division machine gun officer. All of above are assistant chiefs of staff. Others on the General's staff are: Lt. Col. Glen B. Arnold, signal officer; Lt. Col. S. D. Pepper, judge advocate; Lt. Col. O. H. Tower, finance officer; Lt. Col. Geo. R. Hogarth, adjutant; Lt. Geo. C. Kieber, quartermaster; Lt. Col. Patrick R. Dunigan, chaplain; Col. John D. Buck, division surgeon; Maj. Floyd E. Evans, division air officer; Maj. John D. Ostrander, provost marshal; 1st Lt. John I. Croshaw, post office.

Besides the above there will be a number of reserve officers connected with the staff. Among them will be Brig. Gen. E. G. Heckel, a former National Guard officer, and commander of the 126th regiment during the war. There will be about 75 officers in the organized reserves who will be attached to the regiment. Other officers not before mentioned will be Col. John S. Bersey, adjutant general; Lt. Col. F. T. Burt, of the U. S. Army, instructor for headquarters 32nd division.

The training will be somewhat different from previous years. On

COOKING SCHOOL WELL ATTENDED

The Michigan Public Service company gave a cooking demonstration for the benefit of the housewives in Grayling at the Company's office on Friday, July 20th. The school was conducted by Cecil J. Lambert, well known home economist of Chicago, who had some wonderful recipes. Her talk was most interesting and she gave some fine suggestions which every housewife present was glad to know. Everything was done with electricity. Every lady was given a small booklet that she might take home the recipes and ideas given. After the demonstration, cards with each lady's name were put into a box and shaken up. The head prize, an electric percolator, was won by Mrs. R. S. Rabbit. Other prizes consisting of baked dishes were won by Mrs. Victor Smith, Mrs. Charles Fehr, Mrs. Harold Jarmin, and Mrs. Arnold Lauridsen.

August 13 and 14 there will be maneuvers that will involve all troops in camp.

The offices of the Quartermaster department were moved from Lansing to Grayling last Saturday and the business of that department will be conducted at the camp until after the close of the training period.

LOCAL BOYS OFF FOR TRAINING CAMP

TRAINING MEN TO DEFEND THE COUNTRY

Crawford County's quota of six young men left this week to attend the Citizens' Military Training camp at Fort Brady, DeVer and Howard Schmidt, Harold Edwards, Joseph Kesseler, Stanley Madsen and Howard C. Crawford. DeVer Schmidt and Harold Edwards, who attended last year's camp liked it so well that they enrolled again this year.

Provision of special military training for two weeks or more at various summer camps throughout the country is in harmony with the traditional policy of the United States. It is not designed as a part of any militaristic scheme but grows rather out of the absence of a military system. It is a policy aimed to correct, in part, the previous mistakes of the country through failure to be prepared when conflict became inevitable.

The total numbers to be provided for at the camps this summer, according to an announcement of the War Department, will be approximately 273,000, with 51,351 regular army officers and men being detailed for camp instruction. More than one-half of those attending the camps will be members of the National Guard, the chief dependence of the country for military protection in time of peace. The number of young men to be accommodated at the citizens' military training camps, it is indicated, will be about the same as that for several years previous, or 35,000.

Much of the training, particularly that of the citizens' camps, is aimed at preparation for the duties of peace and daily citizenship. It is training designed to encourage patriotism, respect for authority, good sportsmanship, observance of the rules of healthful living and of the rights of others.

But the main purpose is to train these young men to defend their country in the event of war. And no good American need be ashamed to answer it.

Custom is what makes it so improper for a man to appear in company with his suspenders showing and perfectly proper for his wife to go around with her garters visible as the sun.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A HOOVER VICTORY over Smith is as near certain as anything can be in these days when death and taxes continue as the only real surties.
Hoover's victory will come not by reason of booze or religion or the farm situation but because this country is still some millions votes to the good, republican. Under the circumstances the wisest thing for the Republicans to do is to leave well enough alone. The Democrats will have to do some ballyhooing that is their only hope, that out of the confusion of sound which they may create, bewildered Republicans may punch the wrong name. But the Republican voters as a whole are feeling all right now provided they are not ripped up. This is no time for Republican experiments and the hints which are coming out of Washington that some fine new hi-faluting tricks in campaigning are in the making is a subject for real worry. Fortunately Hoover himself has a great big bump of common sense in his own head and inasmuch as he has no intention of getting any campaign underway till some time in September, this will make for the good.

The crying need of the year is a politician who can be wet and dry at the same time and be able to prove it.

HEALTH NEWS

By County Nurse—Miss Keeran.
The County Nurse has heard a rumor of some homes in Grayling that have the measles and some who have the whooping cough. These will not be investigated by the nurse, however they should be reported to the local health officer.

The State Department of Health issues Rules and Regulations for the control of the common communicable diseases which are:

1. Cases and suspected cases must be reported.
2. A conspicuous warning placard must be placed on the residence.
3. Cases and suspected cases must be placed in isolation as described in the Health officer's manual for the following prescribed minimum periods:
 - a. Measles, one week after development of the rash.
 - b. Whooping Cough, three weeks after development of the characteristic whoop.
 - c. Chicken pox, one week after first vesicles appear or until skin is entirely clear.
 - d. Mumps, two weeks after development of pain and tenderness of the parotid or until glands have returned to normal state.
4. Concurrent disinfection must be carried out the entire period of the isolation.

What To Do With the Contacts Contacts in the home are the persons who have never had the disease.

1. Adults may come and go as usual.
2. Children known to be immune by having had their case reported in the records of the local health officer, same as adults.
3. Children not known to be immune must be excluded from all public places for the same period as the child in isolation.

Who has the reporting to do? The heads of families where the case is suspected.

All cases or suspected cases of communicable diseases must be reported immediately to the local health officer, Mr. Julius Nelson for Grayling.
The Health Center has pamphlets concerning the communicable diseases and they can be found by any person stepping inside the office at any time.
They will be in the cupboards which are not locked. There are other good up-to-date reading material concerning health at the Health Center.

Mrs. Broadbent will have charge of the Center on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.
The Salvage Shop will continue.
Miss Ethel Keeran, the County Nurse for Crawford County, will discontinue the duties of the County Nurse the last of July, and will locate at St. Clair, Mich., where she will take up the work of community nurse.

mittee representing the Board of Trade and council. The matter of paving the trunkline highway thru the village was taken up and the final conclusion was that our wishes would be granted.

Both Mr. Rogers and Mr. Dillman were manifestly pleased that Grayling was to have a paved Main street, and promised that they would take steps at once for the paving of the trunkline. Both projects are to be completed some time next fall. The State will order a survey at once and just as soon as possible contracts will be let for the work.

Mr. Dillman says that it is the plan to move the county highway equipment back to Grayling next fall.

It will also be glad news to know that the highway committee of the State Administrative board has authorized a survey of highway No. 76, running from Grayling to Kalkaska,
and with improvements to follow.
This highway has long been needed as a cross state trunk line. This would give us a direct outlet to Traverse City and other places in western Michigan. Some temporary work was done on that highway last year but the road is again about as bad as ever. The road is needed as much by the people of the western part of the state for reaching this region,
as it is for us to reach the west.
This will be a much travelled thoroughfare just as soon as it is fit for use.

New and astonishing permanent Waves

The Gabrielen Oil System is a new and simple one hour process in which no clips or paper tubes are used. By this method it is easy to wave natural hair, also possible to secure astonishing results with bleached or dyed hair. The forcing of an ample amount of oil to the ends of the hair keeps it from becoming brittle. In waving bleached, dyed or white hair, and in cases where previous permanent waving has not been successful, the Gabrielen Oil treatment restores the hair to normal conditions.

An Experienced Operator will be here to demonstrate this ma-

BANKER-FARMER MOVEMENT GROWS

Funds Supplied by Banking Organizations in Many States to Finance Studies and Contests.

The nationwide movement being conducted by county and state bankers' associations and the American Bankers Association in co-operation with the state agricultural colleges and county agents for the purpose of bringing about both local and national solutions for farm economic problems has shown notable results during the past year. A review of these activities in the Bulletin of the Agricultural Commission, American Bankers Association, summarizes some of the chief points as follows:

In Missouri a meeting was held at the College of Agriculture at which the bankers again appropriated $1,600 for boys' and girls' club work. Saline county bankers have raised $500 to stimulate beef calf clubs and report definite results obtained in getting farmers to lime their soil and grow alfalfa. County "key bankers" to promote banker support of farm betterment projects are being appointed and another Short Course in Agriculture for bankers is being planned.

In Kansas no less than fifteen counties are reported by the Extension Service as engaged in definite banker-farmer work. County key bankers attended four district conferences during the year.

The Louisiana bankers' agricultural committee met at the College of Agriculture in connection with a bankers' farm course. The bankers are being thoroughly aroused to the wisdom of tick eradication and are co-operating to that end. County key bankers are being selected and county meetings with bankers throughout the state will be arranged.

Results Shown

In Kentucky key bankers have been appointed in each county with the result that the bankers of the state are co-operating with the College of Agriculture more specifically than any other group of business men. Some of the fruits of this co-operation is demonstrated by the fact that the number of dairy cattle in the state has increased seven per cent and the production per cow twelve per cent. Three counties in the state have eliminated all scrub bulls.

In North Carolina the outstanding accomplishments have been the honoring of "Class A Farmers" that is, those attaining a degree of proficiency in a well balanced and sound system of farming as indicated by a score card prepared by the College of Agriculture and the Bankers Short Course given there. Future plans provide for the continuation of the county key banker system and the arrangement of county banker-farmer tours.

In Virginia $15,000 has been raised by subscription for boys' and girls' club work, largely from bankers. A group meeting was held at the College of Agriculture with two hundred bankers in attendance. The Committee on Agriculture of the State Bankers Association voted to continue and check up on the county key banker work.

The reports from New York on the activities for the past year included the distribution of 20,000 short form farm credit statements prepared co-operatively by the agricultural colleges and bankers. The bankers' agricultural committee also arranged to send suggestions to the banks of the state to aid in financing purchase of dairy cattle to replace those lost by the tuberculin test.

Bankers' Farm Schools

Bankers' Farm Schools or "Short Courses" continued popular during the year. Several colleges held such courses under the auspices of the state bankers' agricultural committees and are repeating them this year.

"Minimum of Talk—Maximum of Demonstration" was the character of program put on by the Kansas Agricultural College for the second Bankers' Farm School in April. Four representatives were invited from each of twenty counties, consisting of the county key banker, the county agent, the secretary of the county bankers association, and the president of the farm bureau. Proper farm methods were brought out by demonstrations, then tours were made to farms whose owners had followed the practices and methods outlined by the college to illustrate the lessons. Emphasis was placed on the important part bankers can play in developing agriculture.

In South Dakota specific plans for the ensuing year are the appointment of county key bankers, co-operation in boys' and girls' club projects and group meetings of county agents and key bankers. In Minnesota the county key bankers system is to be continued with special emphasis on bringing the county agent and key banker into closer co-operation.

At a banker meeting at the North Dakota Agricultural College it was decided that the key banker organization would be completed and in order to acquaint the bankers with agricultural needs county bankers' meetings were planned during the year.

At a conference held at Montana State College it was reported that county key bankers had co-operated in arranging for a livestock special train which ran for seventeen days, made twenty-nine stops and came in contact with 22,000 people, that bankers had assisted in six district conferences that led to the formation of a state agricultural program, and that twenty-eight counties reported definite work under the leadership of the county key bankers such as assisting in the purchase of purebred livestock and loans to club members.

Other States in Line
Idaho College of Agriculture was the scene of a special meeting attended by thirty-five bankers and college representatives. The conference voted to join the key banker ranks.

In Oregon the first banker-farmer short course was held in January with a good attendance and marked enthusiasm. A meeting of the state bankers' agricultural committee held in conjunction with the course voted approval of the banker-farmer contest sponsored by Agricultural Commission, American Bankers Association, and appointed a committee to confer with college authorities on methods to prevent spread of contagion in dairy cattle.

California held twenty-two successful county tours during the year and as a result it is planned to extend the tours to every county in the state and also to arrange a state-wide tour. The county key bankers played a big part in pushing this work. At an Arizona College of Agriculture meeting of bankers county key bankers were appointed and plans made for community conferences of bankers, farmers and others where local agricultural needs will be discussed.

In New Mexico bankers and county agents met at Clovis as a step in the plan to acquaint bankers in different sections of the state with agricultural conditions and to bring about greater co-operation between them and the county agents. At the Colorado College of Agriculture plans were formulated to select county key bankers, to follow up work with key bankers and county agents and for chairman of the state bankers' committee to attend and address group meetings.

In Nebraska four "farm outlook" meetings were held, largely attended by bankers. Sixty-nine county key bankers were appointed during the year and follow-up work between them and county agents is to be pushed.

For Iowa effective co-operation is reported between bankers and the Extension Service of the state college in their farm bureau programs. Every third farmer in the state is a member of the bureau. The key banker system is to be continued and special emphasis is to be placed on team work between county agents and key bankers.

Director D. H. Otis of the Agricultural Commission American Bankers Association attended many of the meetings.

Chickens With Tails 12 Feet Long.

What are perhaps the longest tails of the bird world are seen in Japan and often reach twelve feet in length. They adorn a variety of the barndoor fowl. These cocks are carefully groomed and are kept in high cages containing high perches so that the tails will not touch the floor and become damaged. (© 1935 Western Newspaper Union.)

STRAIGHT TALKS WITH AUNT EMMY

On When Women Come Into Money.

As Aunt Emmy slipped her tea she heard the conversation drift to the Slade sisters. The fact that they had inherited a large fortune and would have to administer it themselves created considerable comment.

"My husband says old man Slade made a big mistake not putting it in trust for them," said Mrs. Burt. "He says women never should handle large sums of money because they are 'financially uneducated'—he really means 'dumb.'"

"All women aren't dumb about money matters, are they, Aunt Emmy?" exclaimed Miss Fringle.

"Of course not," Aunt Emmy agreed. "There are all sorts and kinds of women all the way from very prudent to very foolish."

"Well, anyway, an awful lot of women have been victimized in financial things—just look at all the widows that have been robbed," insisted Mrs. Burt.

"There won't be so much of that in the future as in the past," Aunt Emmy said. "Women have been easy to victimize because they know so little about money affairs, but now they are realizing this danger more and more and are taking advantage of the financial advice departments their bankers have set up for them. One thing that has led to women's financial undoing is their natural love of pretty things. This trait often leads them into foolish investments and speculations to get money quickly."

"Once a woman sets her heart on a thing she can't wait until it is here," said Mrs. Burt. "But if women didn't buy things, there wouldn't be any business," spoke up Molly. "Women are the natural spenders of the family, Dad says."

"Yes, but they would have more to spend if they'd go a little slower," replied Aunt Emmy. "Every time I see a woman falling for some silly get-rich-quick scheme I think of the nice things she could buy with the money she is going to lose. If they'd go slower—they'd get farther."

"From what I know of the Slade girls," Molly began—but just then the Slade girls themselves came in.

"We're so sorry to be late," they apologized, "but we have been having our first lesson in finance down at the Trust Company. They are going to give us quite a lot of time and explain all the things we ought to know about money to keep us out of financial trouble."

"Well, my dears, you are going to the right school," said Aunt Emmy. "If every woman would do that there'd be less trouble and more pretty things for all of them."

VALUABLE INFORMATION
A little girl needs a pocket on every dress. When it interferes with the trimming or design to put it on the outer part, place it on the bloomers. Here it will also help to show which is the front of the bloomers.

Variety of texture makes the meals more appetizing. Have one food with a crisp crust, like corn fritters or scalloped tomatoes; another with a sauce; and a third simply cooked in water and seasoned with melted butter. A raw vegetable, like celery or radishes lends still further variety.

An old-fashioned remedy for a stain made by tar, axle grease, road oil, creosote oil, asphalt or asphalt paint, is to rub lard thoroughly into the stain, and then wash it with hot water and soap. The treatment may have to be repeated. Otherwise one of the solvents, such as carbon tetrachloride, chloroform, turpentine, or benzol may be used.

When making a two-piece dress for a growing girl, take a tuck in both skirt and bodice, so that when you are letting down the garment you change it proportionately. Stitch the tucks at half inch intervals with a long loose stitch. When the first row of stitching is ripped out the dress is lengthened an inch and can be lengthened again.

Fruit drinks made from the juice of fresh fruit, toned up usually with a little lemon juice, are ideal for summer picnics. Try various combinations of orange, blackberry, raspberry, or grape juice, with perhaps ginger ale or carbonated water to give sparkle. The juices can be squeezed out at home, sweetened, chilled, and carried to the picnic in vacuum bottles or surrounded by ice.

Serve small or moderate-sized portions in warm weather and avoid waste. On warm days the appetite does not seem as active as in the cold months. Choose cooling foods, crisp in texture, for part of the meal, and give considerable attention to the appearance of the food and the table.

Out-of-doors meals on the porch or lawn will be found popular and easy, if some of the preparations can be done early in the day.

An easy dinner menu for wash-day may be acceptable: Cold sliced corn beef or other meat; vegetable curry; radishes; baked bananas. You can use various vegetables in the curry, but a good combination contains rice, onion, carrots, fresh or canned peas, celery, in about equal amounts, and seasonings. Cook the rice first. Cook the vegetables the necessary length of time for each in a small amount of water. Make a ring of the rice, and put the vegetables in the middle, pouring over them a sauce made of the vegetable water, seasoned with curry, salt, pepper, or Worcestershire sauce, and butter.

Flirt Lace Frock

Dorothy Mackall, in "Lady Be Good," illustrates the new mode in fashions for summer in a flirt lace frock combined with chiffon in a delicate shade of shell pink. The skirt of irregular length consists of two ruffles of lace attached to a bodice of the pink chiffon. The old fashioned bertia with a deep back is made interesting with bows and a ribbon st. eamer of chiffon at the shoulder. A large, transparent hat of horsehair and chiffon and a ruffled parasol complete a picture of femininity that carries back memories of the fluffly girl of bygone days.

Champion Rene Lacoste

Rene Lacoste, conqueror of Bill Tilden, is now the holder of the Wimbledon singles championship for 1928, having completely outplayed his countryman, Henri Cochet, in four sets to win by the score of 6-1, 4-6, 6-4, and 6-2.

Mexican Girls Take to Water Sports

Girls of Mexico have begun to take great interest in water sports. A bunch of them are here seen ready to start in the first boat race championship ship contest ever held there. It was held on the Kochimilco canals, near Mexico City.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVANCEE OF 23 YEARS AGO.

Thursday, July 27, 1905
James P. Hanna of Beaver Creek has gone to Maple City, Kansas for a visit with his daughters.

Rev. H. A. Sheldon went to Tawas Tuesday for a little visit with the family who will remain there till about the middle of August.

The huckleberry crop seems to be nearer a failure than a success in this locality. The quality is all right but there is only a few for shipment.

The breaking of the big wheel that takes logs up into the mill Saturday morning gave a lot of the men a chance to go fishing.

Miss Jeanette McLean left last Friday to spend the summer with relatives in Montreal and other points in the Province of Quebec, Canada.

Miss Althea McIntyre is home from her school at Iron River where she will return for next year. She visited at Port Huron, Detroit and Bay City on her way home.

Mrs. Bessie Wetz nee Metzler is home for her annual visit, and will be joined by her husband in a few days, for as usual at this time of year he is trout hungry.

The average yield of hay in the county is good, most of it has been secured in excellent condition between showers. All crops have made wonderful growth since the drouth was broken July 3rd.

John A. Everett and wife returned last week from a three weeks delightful outing having left home July first with their carriage and they drove through thirteen counties visiting as they went. Mr. Everett reports crops except hay and grain absolutely ruined by the excessive rains.

Chas. Coleson and family together with Theo. Soderquist's family and Rev. Hoyt's family of Bay City have spent a couple of weeks camping on the Au Sable river. Everyone reports having a good time every minute experiencing everything that goes with camping from getting drenched from a boat and ducked by heavy rains.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob R. Kastenholz of South Branch were in town yesterday, and the Avalanche will slide to them every week for the year. He reports crops in excellent shape.

"The New Russell" is the name adopted for H. Charron's hotel, which is just opened with A. Charron as manager. It is all new, clean and comfortable, and will be run as a temperance house. We bespeak for it a liberal patronage, which we believe it will deserve and more hotel accommodation was certainly needed in our village.

We were in Gaylord last week and were most agreeably surprised at the growth and substantial improvement made there during the last three years in the business as well as the residence sections. Brick and cement blocks taking the place of the old wooden structures which were destroyed by fire.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pond are made glad by a visit from their daughter.

Mrs. T. P. Junkins, of Detroit. Mr. Junkins is ex-president of the Detroit Press Club, which held their annual meeting last week and had a delightful outing, but he had not had enough and will clean the Au Sable, with A. L. of its surplus trout.

The storm of last week Monday night was much more severe from here north through Maple Forest than in our village. The Forest road was made almost impassable by fallen timber, maples 2 feet in diameter being broken off the tops carried 100 feet or more by the wind. Commissioner Robinson had a lively job removing the debris to accommodate the travel from the north.

Last Thursday a large consignment of the W. R. G. took the early train for Roscommon where they were entertained by Mrs. S. C. Briggs, being joined by ladies of that village in the afternoon. They made a day of it, returning on the merchandise train in the evening. A cyclone of fun and enjoyment.

The old adage "a friend in need, is a friend indeed" is exemplified this week in our office. Needing additional immediate help we phoned H. C. McKinley of Gaylord, to secure a lady typist from there, but he found she had gone for her vacation and no one was at liberty. Realizing our position he put aside his rest for a few days and kindly came to the rescue and helped us out.

FREE SALVATION

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Man, University of Illinois

THEY were singing lustily at the revival meeting, and I was joining in with my cracked voice which was in the process, quite embarrassing to me, of changing.

"Salvation's free, for you and me, I'm glad salvation's free."

Sam Gregory, who had accepted confidently the simple faith propounded by the evangelist, and had just been baptized in the stream which ran through Cloyd's pasture, took the song literally. He had done everything which the minister had laid down for him to do; he was quite at peace and in his simple mind, for he told me so, he was safe for all time and safe for eternity. There was nothing further for him to do. He had got something very precious to him practically for nothing, and that was a new experience for Sam.

But he was quite mistaken. We get nothing worth while in the world, and possibly nothing in the next absolutely free. We don't always pay what a thing is worth, but we pay, and it wasn't long before Sam knew that if he were to be saved there was a price to be paid. He had taken on some heavy obligations when he stood up and joined the church. There was a slight financial obligation, but this did not disturb him. He had never contributed before to the support of the church, but the stry nickel which dropped into the contribution box when he had a girl with him at the evening service, but the five dollars which he would be expected to subscribe did not worry him.

But there were other things. He had been rather profane up to the time of his joining the church, and he had a high temper which must now be subdued, and he had despised some of the neighbors with whom he had done business, and now "Love one another, for love is the fulfilling of the law" was the commandment. Sam was game. He was in no way a grifter. When he made an obligation he met it, and he came to see that salvation isn't quite free. Nothing is. It must be paid for in love and sacrifice and self-control. It is worth all that it costs, but there is a price to be paid. Sam paid it. No one ever heard him utter a profane word after the revival was over. He lived in peace and harmony with his family and with his neighbors. He came in time to see that generous giving was an obligation which he could not evade if he would pay what he should, and he saw, too, that the debt he owed for the salvation which was dear to him was one which he could never really pay, any more than he could fully meet the debt of obligation which he owed to his mother, and so he kept on trying to pay until the end.

Merely to accept a religious creed he saw was not enough. It didn't make him safe even for all time much less for eternity. It simply piled upon him a debt which try as he might he could never fully wipe out.

Angelo Patri was born in Europe but came to this country long ago. The twenty-five years he has been a public school teacher in New York City with as much success that he is now principal of one of the city's largest schools. He has written many books and for a great many years has contributed a daily article on the care and teaching of children.

Angelo Patri views the American scene through different eyes. He has a cosmopolitan attitude, an intelligent pose which has won for him, via his newspaper and magazine articles, a powerful and successful following. He is one of the greatest forces in education and good citizenship that exists today. He is married and with his wife conducts an advisory course for parents, particularly touching problems relating to children.

By ANGELO PATRI

One cannot fall in love after thirty? Why just that tick of the clock? Is there then no grace for the day after? Or the year? Did Old Time set a mark at that place? Tilt his glass with finality? Or is it but the pleasant notion of a happy man who, having found a treasure early, believes his good fortune to be the love of life? It cannot be that one loses his chance of love and loving because he has lived a short thirty of the seven-ty-eight years allotted him. What has true love ever had to do with time? Love is limitless, timeless. It is a quality of the spirit as intangible as sunlight and air—and as evident. It has always defied the gestures of time and of locks. It is as elusive, as mysterious, as powerful as the Spirit of God, which indeed it is. How else explain its eternal power over men and women?

Recently there were two weddings in my circle of friends. One pair were little more than children—a scant twenty-one numbered the tale of their years. The other two were both gray-haired. More than fifty years had passed over their heads yet the lovelight in their eyes was just as bright, the spring in their steps the full in their voices were just as buoyant, just as alive as that which animated those of youth.

Indeed, a second spring seems to have come to them, for the man, an artist, turns out better work than ever he has done before and the woman lives and works in the tireless energy of youth with the added power of experience.

I never hear about lovers without remembering the Brownings, those most perfect of all lovers. The story of their great love is enough to quicken the heart and moisten the eyes of the darkest doubter. Elizabeth Barrett was a poetess frail of body an invalid confined to her room for the greater part of her life. Shielded from all outside contacts by a devoted family, guarded by a jealous father who had sworn death to lovers, she lived in seclusion and loneliness until she was thirty-nine years old. Then it happened, this thing some folks say cannot happen after one is thirty.

Miss Browning read it and her heart responded to its message as one song bird responds to the love call of another. He wrote his love a letter and she was not slow to answer. Within two years these two eloped to Italy where they lived in complete happiness until death claimed the frail Elizabeth.

She was forty and Browning was thirty-four the day they ran away to be secretly married in the parish church. Where was Old Time then? Ah, no Love is timeless. It is the divine quality that merges self into selflessness, seeks another's good in another's joy.

When the chamber of the heart is swept and garnished true love comes and stays. It never asks what o'clock it is.

Strange Burial Rites in "Darkest Africa"

A strangely weird ceremony is performed by the Katenbetta (Africa) tribe on the occasion of the last great phase of human experience. The body of the dead tribesman is placed in a wooden coffin elaborately ornamented with brass nails. (These are a great luxury, only obtainable at a high price from traders.) The coffin is carried to the place of burial amid the beat of tom-toms and the wild chants of the villagers who follow, bringing with them small chairs or seats.

A huge circle is formed around the coffin; the headmen chant in low, monotonous tones which are responded to by sonorous refrains from the deceased's relatives and friends. With a huge pyre crackling in the fast-gathering dusk and the sparks flying upward the scene is not easily forgotten. Another evil spirit has been called to its reward, the natives say. Truly fitting, and yet how sad, is this philosophy of these Darkest Africans.

Bird Fancies

The cuckoo has been credited with the habit of sucking birds' eggs to produce a clear voice; the swift was said to hibernate during the winter season beneath the waters of a lake or pool; while the harlequin goose was supposed to originate from ship-barnacles—one writer recording the fact that he had actually witnessed barnacles detach themselves from the face of a rock, and then transform themselves into miniature geese.

Record Plant Family

The largest family of plants, containing about one-tenth of all flowering plants, is the thistle family. To this family belong the asters, golden-rod, daisy and thousands of others.

FREDERIC NEWS

Rev. Earl enjoyed a visit from his wife and son of Bad Axe last Saturday.

Mrs. Dinsmore of Gladwin is visiting her husband who is living on the old C. F. Kelly farm near Mill town. Mr. Dinsmore is able to furnish lots of honey as he has a colony of thirty hives.

A peculiar circumstance occurred the other day when Mrs. C. Horton kindly came to inform Mrs. George Hunter that a three months old calf belonging to her was upstairs in the Sheldon barn. Mrs. Hunter went to investigate and found this to be true, but had to wait until the boys' work was done before the calf could be rescued. If aid had not come before long it surely would have perished.

We wonder how it got there.

John Parsons and sisters of Rogers City came over last Sunday to visit the old town and their old friends.

Miss Evelyn Barber was home last week from Mt. Pleasant normal where she is attending school.

Mrs. Earl's sister of Caro arrived Saturday to spend several weeks visiting while she is recuperating from a lengthy illness.

CANT KEEP PROHIBITION OUT OF CAMPAIGN

Tom Conlin in his splendid newspaper, The Diamond Drill, published at Crystal Falls, in a recent editorial, says:

"We're inclined to agree with the statement made by many editorial writers, that the prohibition question cannot be kept out of this campaign. In fact, we believe that the people want to see it included for we're of the opinion that the major portion of the voters are not perfectly satisfied with the workings of the Volstead Act. We also believe that the great majority of the people do not want the saloon back. There is no use to deny that the present organized liquor traffic is something that the people of this nation don't foresee when they adopted the 18th Amendment. The people wanted to get rid of the saloon, and they wished it not so much from a moral as from a political standpoint. The saloon had debauched politics to an extent that everyone wanted its tentacles clipped. That desire, and the industrial accident laws put prohibition over. In place of the saloon has arisen a nation-wide illicit liquor traffic that will eventually compel some change in the method of dealing with the liquor problem or the bootleg traffic will become as great a nuisance as the saloon. Shall it be back to the saloon or shall it be some other plan that will substitute legal liquor for the synthetic illegal stuff? ... This campaign, if it turns to prohibition will have many more angles to it than a modification of the Volstead act so as to allow light wine and beer."
